

EDUardo Student Ambassador Program

Terms and Conditions

The student ambassador program is not profit oriented. The participants receive no compensation after the involvement. Equally, EDUardo does not receive any fee from the participants.

The participant's rights

- Participate in the events and consultations of the program
- Receive extended access to the learning platform of EDUardo
- May refer to their participation in social media
- Receive a program certification upon successfully accomplishing the program

The participant's responsibilities

- Be active and responsive during the program
- Acknowledge and follow the privacy and data management policy of EDUardo
- Not to share the personal access codes of the program with 3rd parties

Other terms and conditions

- The general language of communication is English
- The participant is a student of a higher education institution
- The participant acknowledges that breaching the core terms of the program might result the termination of the program participation